This Ole House once knew my chil - dren: This Ole House once knew my wife. This Ole House is get - ting shak - y; This Ole House is get - ting old. This Ole house was home and com - fort as we fought the storms of Life. This Ole house lets in the rain this Ole house the lets in the cold. On my house once rang with laugh - ter; this Ole house hear man - y schouts; Now the knees I'm get - ting chill - y But I feel no fear - y nor pain. 'Cause I trem - bles in the dark - ness when the light - in' walks a - bout! Ain't gon - na see an ang - el peak - ing through the the bro - ken win - dow - pane. need this house no long - er ain't gon - na need this house no more. Ain't got time to fix this shing - les, ain't got time to fix the floor. Ain't got time to oil the hing - les nor to mend no win - dow - panes. Aint gon - na need this house no long - er I'm get - ting rea - dy to meet the Saints. This Ole rea - dy to meet the Saints.
